MUSIC EDUCATION SPECIALIST
WILL OFFER WORKSHOPS AT UM

MISSOULA--

Dianne Kral, assistant professor of music at the University of Montana, will offer two evening workshops on the UM campus fall quarter. She holds a master of music degree from the University of Oregon and has had special training in methods of music education developed by Carl Orff and Zoltan Kodaly.

"Music Reading for Adults" will be given Tuesdays from 6 to 7:30 p.m. from Sept. 30 through Dec. 2. The fee is $30. "Music in the Home" is scheduled Wednesdays from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Oct. 1 through Dec. 3. The fee is $40. Both will meet in room 218 of the UM Music Building.

Registration for either workshop is requested by Sept. 25. Further information about registration is available at the Center for Continuing Education, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula 59812; telephone 243-2900.

"Music Reading for Adults" will benefit church choir members, singers in high school choirs and others interested in music. Participants will develop skills in sight-reading, listening and musical reading and writing and will gain understanding of basic principles of music theory.

"Music in the Home" is for preschoolers and their parents and teachers. The adults will learn how to nurture musical abilities of the preschool child, using available resources and materials, and how to interact musically with children in a natural, enjoyable way.
